18TH APRIL 2017 BUNNY RUN THREE 3MILE/300FT

BR Series champ and new Egg Stage record holder, 17 year old Matthew Merrick gives his race account, 'Well, the stage was set, do I go for the three Egg Stage wins as it was my goal to win one stage, not two or three before the series started, or take it steady and take the series win with Tom Adams not running and Joe Baster and Jack Wood only completing 2 events. With Dave Woodhead trying his best to build the pressure Vicki and I decided it would be best to try for the Egg Stage and then save my legs for the Mini London Marathon at the weekend. I prepared for the start where it was great to see Tom Adams, who gave me words of confidence and belief that I could do it. On the start line, Dave tried again to build the pressure, but I knew with Jack Wood ready to challenge me this would just push me further. Go! we were off, my trusted Inov8 fell shoes gave me the start I wanted and I was flying up to the first corner. This gave me the chance to see the field and where Jack was. As expected he was Just behind, about 10 to 15 metres, but I knew he would be quick on the next section and was I right I could hear Jack behind me, I remembered back to 2016 when I tried for the Egg Stage in Bunny Three where Jack just made it past me, so I was determined this wouldn't happen again. Over the last jump and I could see the finish, a quick peep over the shoulder and I saw he was finished and the triple Egg Stage was mine. After the Stage had finished it was time to slow down and save what was left of my legs for the weekend. I had pats on the back from all my fell running and training mates when they overtook me, but I knew I'd achieved my goal. After the event and at the prize giving I was overwhelmed to hear I'd gone faster than Tom and took the Egg Stage record in 3.13, ten seconds faster than my previous two wins and four seconds faster than the record. But to my surprise, my 16th seconds faster than my previous two wins and four seconds faster than the record. But to my surprise, my 16th place on the night actually gave me the overall Bunny Series win by one point, a double, something I didn't think possible. Thanks to my club Bingley for cheering me on and all my Greenhead Monster training partners, especially Ian Holmes and Tom Adams for all the training and encouragement, and one final mention to my twin sis Vicki who is always there for me, whether on a low or high, at training and at races she always gives me the right advice. Mini Marathon now in my sights and then Bunnies 2018 when I know you'll all be gunning for me. 'BR One winner Joe Baxter returned to take the victory after a ding dong battle with Jack Smith with only three seconds seperating them. 'After the disappointment of not being able to attend the second Bunny, and therefore now being unable to no for the Series win I was earner to not to the last race and was somehow not deterred by the seperating them. After the disappointment of hot being able to attern the second builty, and intertore how being unable to go for the Series win, I was eager to get to the last race and was somehow not deterred by the outstanding times of the previous week....until upon arrival, I was reminded of how superb those times really were by Dave...again and AGAIN. Checking the starting line-up.... all the fast lads are here, but still no sign of Mr Hall.... Maybe a second win can be achieved?! My other concern was my decision to wear road shoes, but this was soon quashed following a short conversation with 'The Legend' (Aka Mr Holmes) who had opted for the same. Surely I am right then?! Before I knew it, and with even more of a shock than usual, we were off! Once again, I knew Matt am right then?! Before I knew it, and with even more of a shock than usual, we were offi Unce again, I knew Matt would be off like a Rocket to seek out his third Egg Stage win in a row, which he did so in style by bagging the record, as Tom Adams stared on in quiet anger. In an effort to foil Matt's plans of glory Jack Wood had also gone out hard and thankfully began to drop in pace a little after the first climb. From here I managed to get into the lead and hold it for some time until with about one mile to go someone started breathing down my neck. It was Jack Smith! Bronzed from his MANY alpine cycling holidays. Having spent time on the track with Jack I knew he was Smith Bronzed from his MANY alphe cycling holidays, having sperif time on the track with Jack in back in was quick. We had a great battle over the final mile, offen side by side. It was only on the final climb I managed to pull a small gap to run in for the win. Great fun once again' said now twice winner Joe Baxter. Matt Lockyer finished third and Jack Wood fourth after giving all at the Egg Stage, while Bunny legend Ian Holmes finished ninth and broke his own V50 record set only last week by eight seconds. Jack Wood led Ilkely to the team chocolate prizes with Matt Newell fifth and first BU17 Cameron Reilly eighth. Adam Osborne won the V40, Malcolm Pickering the V60's Mait Neweii link and link bUT Cameron Kelliy eight. Adam Osobre won the 40, Maicolin Pickering the 400s and Peter Ellerton the V70s. 33 year old Helen Glover won the ladies race and suprisingly her only ever other win was back 2010 at BR One, FU15 Alice Jones in second won the BR Series and like Matthew Merrick will be immortalised on the 2018 Bunny Beer label. Sarah Pickering finished third and Sarah Tipler fourth before FU17 Emily Field finished fifth. Ruby Sykes won her fifth Egg Stage. Caroline Harding won the FV40, Becky Weight the FV50 and Aileen Baldwin the FV60. Wharfedale again won the team with Alice Jones, Emily Jones 11th and Monica Padilla 15th, A great fun night, race video on the big screen, soup and roll, chocolate prizes galore and the finale the chocolate throw out by new Egg Stage record holder and three times winner Matthew Merrick and Ladies winner Helen Glover, well done to everyone and thanks to all our helpers. Bunny Run Relay next week 7.30pm start.
